

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JOHN HOFFMANN AWARDED 2026 TAU SIGMA DELTA ARCHITECTURE MEDAL FROM UNIVERSITY OF HARTFORD

Hoffmann recognized by honor society chapter for contributions to the field of architecture

West Hartford, Conn. — 27 May 2026 — Hoffmann Architects + Engineers, a design firm specializing in the rehabilitation of building exteriors, announces that founder and Executive Chairman John J. Hoffmann, FAIA was selected as the recipient of the 2026 Silver Medal from the University of Hartford’s Gamma Nu Chapter of the Tau Sigma Delta Honor Society for Architecture and the Allied Arts, the highest honor awarded by the local organization to a practicing professional.

John J. Hoffmann, FAIA was awarded the Tau Sigma Delta Medal from the University of Harford for “outstanding design work and years of service to the profession and the academy.” A national honor society for architecture and design students, Tau Sigma Delta admits members whose academic performance falls in the top 10% of the student body and who have demonstrated not only scholastic achievement, but also leadership and character. Members of each Tau Sigma Delta chapter select one professional in the field of architecture, landscape architecture, or the allied arts as the recipient of the Silver Medal, the chapter’s highest honor.

John J. Hoffmann, FAIA
Executive Chairman

“After numerous nominations and careful consideration, it gives me great pleasure to announce that John J. Hoffmann, of Hoffmann Architects + Engineers, has been chosen as the University of Hartford Tau Sigma Delta chapter’s recipient of the 2026 Silver Medal,” wrote Dr. Theodore Randall Sawruk, Ed.D., NOMA, Assoc. AIA, Associate Professor of Architecture and Tau Sigma Delta Faculty Advisor. “We would like to take this opportunity to recognize John Hoffmann for his outstanding design work and years of service to the profession and the academy.”

(Left): Dr. Theodore Sawruk confers the Silver Medal on John Hoffmann, FAIA. (Right): John Hoffmann with Bronze Medal recipient Reilly McGrath and honorary Tau Sigma Delta members James Fuller, AIA, and Dr. Jill Bambury.

Tau Sigma Delta members presented John Hoffmann with the medal at the Gamma Nu Chapter's annual luncheon on Monday, April 27, 2026 at the University of Hartford 1877 Club in West Hartford, Conn.

###

Founded in 1977, Hoffmann Architects + Engineers specializes in the rehabilitation of the building enclosure. The firm's work focuses on the exteriors of existing structures, diagnosing and resolving deterioration within facades, roofing systems, windows, waterproofing materials, plazas/terraces, parking garages, and historic and landmark structures. We provide consulting services for new building construction, as well as litigation and claim support. Our technical professionals investigate and correct damage resulting from time and weather, substandard or improper construction, design defects, material failures, poor workmanship, structural movement, and stress. To learn more, visit www.hoffarch.com.